You will identify parts sales opportunities for growth whilst building solid relationships with key customers and partners, ensuring the business aligns with procurement processes. Your ability to drive and your energy will be a very important factor in maintaining and supporting the work that the team has accomplished.

In your daily work, you will use tools such as IFS, Novacura, Power BI, Excel, and PowerPoint.

Key responsibilities will be:

- Receive and send RFQ.
- Create Quotations and orders for customers incl. follow-up.
- Coordinating with Logistics and suppliers to ensure timely deliveries and oversee the integrity and quality of delivered goods and services.
- Collaborate with the teams Commercial, Technology and Strategic Procurement to ensure technical accuracy and competency of suppliers tendering for work.
- Managing supplier invoice and customer invoicing.
- Ensure continuous follow-up and reporting on customers' statements of accounts.
- Ensure follow up on overdue payments in corporation with Project managers.
- Regular reviewing existing customers procedures, contracts and payment terms etc with customer responsible to maximise value to the business.

Qualifications & Knowledge to succeed

- Full qualification in business administration, procurement (CIPS), or similar relevant field with 3+ years.
- Master Danish and English in speech and writing.
- Confident communicator with an engaging personality.
- Structured, detail-oriented, proactive and fundamentally positive approach.
- Experienced in the Microsoft Office programs Excel, Power Point.
- Preferably, you are also an experienced user in ERP systems such as IFS and Novacura.
